From the Desk of Adam Jarosz:

State of the Youth Address

Greetings to you all from your Youth & Young Adult Ministry. I am celebrating my sixth anniversary here at St. Greg's this month and wanted to give thanks to the Lord and share with you how we are doing. The state of the ministry is strong and God has blessed us abundantly. Thanks be to Him. We have a dynamite staff of youth ministers covering middle school through the 30somethings. Our target audience covers over 8,000 of our parishioners. There isn't another parish with a full-time team of three, and it's paying off. Of course, we are nothing without the extraordinary Core Teams of over 40 volunteers that make up the core of the ministry.

We are seven months into young adult ministry with budding fruit. The development of a new Core Team, the completion of a rigorous 90 days of Exodus forming a group of men, a young women's Bible study, the return of College Life, monthly service at St. Luke's, and a first for the ministry - a soon-to-be announced Fall Retreat. This ministry is just getting started too. We're gaining our footing with seeing what works and what doesn't. It's only getting stronger.

High-school ministry has transitioned nicely with Richard taking the helm. Not only has Life Teen grown in strength but he has developed not one, but three bands for youth ministry. One is led by a talented group of musicians called Day7. The other two are teen bands that serve the ministry and the parish as a whole. The Glory Beats can be seen at one 4:30pm Sunday Mass a month. Ascent 101, our other youth band, leads praise and worship at middle school nights. Richard has also developed other great opportunities including SWAT which dives deeper into faith in a less formal setting.

There is a need to expand our middle school ministry this year, and Nicole is leading the way by adding another grade to our lineup. To do so, she will be splitting off the newly minted "Ignite", 5th & 6th grades, into its own time slot starting this fall. Edge will be specifically for 7th & 8th grades and will continue to grow and thrive. Nicole also paved the way for our first camp experience for middle schoolers this summer, taking 14 to Hidden Lake Camp in Georgia for a week of faith and adventure.

We have come a long way in youth and young adult ministry and there is much to do. Youth culture today can be toxic to the soul and there is no better time to be hitting a stride to counter it. We are working hard towards our mission of "leading people to Christ through authentic faith and radical hospitality," and my prayer is that the Lord continue to bless us as we carry this out. With Fr. Leon's leadership, our parish has invested mightily into the youth and young adults, not only with resources but in prayer and love. The dividends are Heavenly. St. Gregory the Great, pray for us. Peace and love to you all - Adam Jarosz

VOCATION VIEW

Jesus assures us that all who believe in Him will have eternal life. I’m sure that we have heard this lesson many times, but it can still be easy to forget. How is Jesus asking you to remind His people of His promise of eternal life? If God is calling you to a Church vocation call Fr. Andrew Lauricella at 716-847-5535. HOUSE FOR HAITI

Fr. Gus Gordon gave an enlightening homily about the people in Haiti and the difference between being poor and "disenfranchised." The vision of 800,000 people living in a 2 square mile radius because they are waiting for the garbage trucks to come, so they can pick through the garbage to get their food and feed their family, and the fact they have no bathrooms or any of the "Basic" needs made me cry. We are so blessed in this country and in our community of St. Gregory's in Williamsville, NY. We have approx. 5000 families at St. Gregory's and it was placed on my heart to ask you to please join me and the Ladies of the Lord in funding a home which will be matched by a donor in South America. TWO for the price of one! If we could have 35 families donate $100.00 we could do this! Please pray about it and if you can bring or send a check to the office made out to St. Gregory the Great, with the amount and in the memo write HOUSE/Food For The Poor. On the envelope att: Dawn Curazzato/Ladies of the Lord

Marriage Moment

“God created man in the image of himself, in the image of God he created him, male and female he created them.” (Genesis 1:27) Pronouns can be confusing and so can the differences between males and females. How does your spouse fit gender stereotypes? How not? More importantly, how does he/she reflect something of the Divine to you?

Parenting Perspective

“All the things that have happened to me have been important in making me who I am. To wish that certain things didn't happen is to wish that I am not myself.” (Author unknown) Help your child unravel the mystery of how mistakes and problems teach life lessons to be used for future success.

Respect Life

Pope Francis Declares Death Penalty "Inadmissible:" On Aug 2, the Vatican announced that Pope Francis revised the Catechism to teach that the death penalty is "inadmissible" and to say that the Church "works with determination for its abolition worldwide."

In a decree, the Pope has replaced the previous version of #2267 of the Catechism to read:

2267. Recourse to the death penalty on the part of legitimate authority, following a fair trial, was long considered an appropriate response to the gravity of certain crimes and an acceptable, albeit extreme, means of safeguarding the common good.

Today, however, there is an increasing awareness that the dignity of the person is not lost even after the commission of very serious crimes. In addition, a new understanding has emerged of the significance of penal sanctions imposed by the state.

Lastly, more effective systems of detention have been developed, which ensure the due protection of citizens but, at the same time, do not definitively deprive the guilty of the possibility of redemption.

Consequently, the Church teaches, in the light of the Gospel, that "the death penalty is inadmissible because it is an attack on the inviolability and dignity of the person, and she works with determination for its abolition worldwide."

The previous wording in #2267 acknowledged the right of the state to execute criminals, but also emphasized that the cases in which the execution of the offender is an absolute necessity "are very rare, if not practically nonexistent." The new language removes any possibility that the death penalty is an acceptable solution.

According to the Vatican's explanation, the change is based on the past teaching of Pope St. John Paul II and Benedict XVI and is an "authentic development of doctrine that is not in contradiction with the prior teachings of the Magisterium." (Full text at ncregister.com)

Gift-Gathering Party Time

Everyone loves an excuse to party. Host a gift-gathering party to support St. Greg's annual dinner auction and have fun while supporting the parish's largest fund raising effort. Contrary to popular belief, a gift-gathering party does not have to be a lavish large catered affair to be a success. The best parties are simple and easy. How about coffee and donuts with friends, a kids pool party, wine and cheese with the neighbors? The possibilities are endless! For more information on how to host or plan your own party, please contact Auction Coordinator Cindy Reitebach at dinnerauction@gmail.com or 688-5678 x337.
